Student Marital Status Confirmation

Based on the information provided on your FAFSA, it appears there may have been a recent change in your marital status. To accurately calculate your financial aid eligibility our office will need additional information from you. Please complete this form .

Student Name: _____ FLCC ID Number: _____

We are unable to continue processing your application for financial aid because it contains incomplete or conflicting information. We need to know what your marital status was as of the date you signed the original Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This date can be found on the Student Aid Report (SAR) that you received from the U.S. Department of Education.

Marital status may not be updated if it changes after the date, you sign the FAFSA. Please complete the following clarification question:

On the date my original FAFSA was signed, my marital status was:

- ___ Never Been Married
- ___ Married Date of Marriage (attach license) _____
- ___ Remarried Date of Remarriage (attach license) _____
- ___ Divorced Date of Divorce (attach decree) _____
- ___ Separated* Date of Separation (attach documentation) _____
- ___ Widowed Date Spouse Deceased (attach death certificate) _____

*Separation is defined as legally or informally separated when one of the partners has left the household for an indefinite period and the marriage is severed. Documentation includes, but is not limited to signed lease agreements or mortgage papers, separate utility bills, etc. Final determination of acceptable documentation is made on a case-by-case basis.
 All the information on this form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge.
